

"Role of Nuclear Medicine in Managing Neuroendocrine Tumours: Innovating to Improve Outcomes"

8th February 2017

UK and Ireland Neuroendocrine Tumour Society

Target Audience: NET Teams, Nuclear Medicine Teams

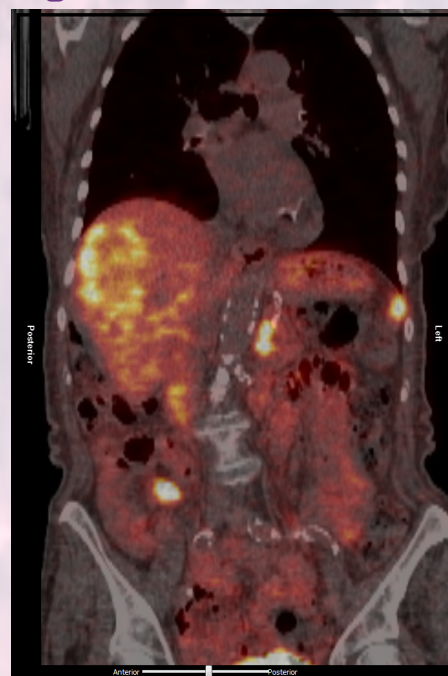

Organisers: Sobhan Vinjamuri and Tahir Shah on behalf of UKINETS and BNMS

Venue:  Austin Court, Birmingham

AUSTIN COURT

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME:

0900 TO 0910	INTRODUCTION AND OBJECTIVES FOR THE DAY
0910 TO 0940	NETs – Improving outcomes, identifying challenges
0940 TO 1010	Nuclear Medicine – History of innovation
1010 TO 1035	COFFEE BREAK
1035 TO 1105	Advances in Radiological Imaging for NETs
1105 TO 1235	Advances in Nuclear Medicine imaging and Impact on Patient Management
1235 TO 1305	Role of commissioning in UK&I in delivering services
1305 TO 1400	LUNCH
1400 TO 1430	Multi-disciplinary management of NET patients
1430 TO 1500	PRRT
1500 TO 1525	COFFEE BREAK
1525 TO 1555	SIRT
1555 TO 1625	Review of UK position and role of commissioning
1625 TO 1640	CLOSE AND SUMMARY

Registration and event info will be available on www.bnms.org.uk

Please visit www.ukinets.org