

Second International Symposium on Carcinoid Heart Disease

Birmingham, Thursday 2nd September 2021

Outline Programme: Carcinoid Heart Disease: Intervention in CHD

Provisional endorsement: UKI NETS; BHVS; BSE; BCS

09:00 – 09.30 Registration & Coffee

09.30 Welcome to the Symposium

Session 1: Aetiology and quantifying impact

09.30 – 10:00 Carcinoid heart disease: where are we now?
Dr Rebecca Dobson, Liverpool Heart and Chest

10:00 – 10:30 Diagnosis and tracking valve involvement: expert recommendations on echocardiography reporting
Prof Joseph Davar, Royal Free Hospital, Chair ENETS CHD Task Force

10:30 – 11:00 Quantifying ventricular response in CHD
Dr Richard Steeds

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee / Tea Brake

Session 2: Current Management of CHD

11:30 – 12:00 Medical therapy: options in CHD
Marianne Pavel, Chair of the European Neuroendocrine Tumor Society (ENETS)

12:00 – 12:45 Timing surgery: when to operate and when to palliate?
Prof Heidi Connolly, Mayo Clinic, Rochester

12.45 – 13.30 LUNCH BREAK: Ipsen Symposium

Session 3: Surgical Management of CHD

13:30 – 14:00 Surgical Management of CHD: A UK Perspective
Mr Stephen Rooney, Queen Elizabeth Hospital

14:00 – 14:45 Optimising surgical outcomes in complex CHD cases
Dr Hartzell Schaff, Mayo Clinic, Rochester

14.45 - 15:00 A patient perspective: before, during and after surgery
NET Clinical Nurse Specialist Team and patients

15.00 – 15.30 TEA

Session 4: Peri-operative Management and Future Care

15.30 – 16.00 Peri-operative and intensive care management Dr Harry Singh

16:00 – 16.30 Fundamentals of Tissue Fibrosis Professor Fiona Oakley, Newcastle

16.30-17.00 Future challenges and research possibilities in CHD Professor Javier Castillo,
Mount Sinai, NY

17.00 Close