

Third International Symposium on Carcinoid Heart Disease

Venue: Sheffield City Hall, Barkers pool, Sheffield, S1 2JA.

Tuesday 5th December 2023

08:15 – 08.45      Registration & Coffee

08.45 – 09.00      Welcome to the Symposium

09.00 – 10.30 – Selecting the right patient for CHD Surgery

09.00 – 09.30      The Net Specialist's perspective
Professor Christos Toumpanakis – The Royal Free Hospital, London

09.30 – 10.00      The Cardiologist's perspective
Professor Rick Steeds – Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

10.00 – 10.30      The Cardiothoracic Surgeon's perspective
Mr. A. Ashoub – Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

10:30 – 11:00      Coffee, Posters and Exhibitions

11.00 – 12.30 – Optimising the patient in preparation for CHD Surgery

11.00 – 11.30      Sarcopenia and exercise therapy
Dr. Matthew Armstrong – Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham (remotely)

11.30 – 12.00      Stabilising NET disease
Professor Dan Cuthbertson – University of Liverpool

12.00 – 12.30      MDT
Panel : Mr. Stephen Rooney, Professor Rick Steeds, Dr. Rebecca Dobson

- Medical Management: Arrhythmia – Dr. Ying Gue – Liverpool Heart and Chest Hospital
- Patient Foramen Ovale – Dr. Sasha Porter-Bent – Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

12.35 – 13.30      Lunch , Posters and Exhibitions

13.30 – 15.00 – Getting the patient through the operation

13.30 – 14.00      Surgical Tips
Mr. Andrew Muir – Liverpool Heart and Chest Hospital

14.00 – 14.30      Intensive Care
Dr. Samuel Denham – Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

14.30– 15.00      Supporting the right ventricle and managing right heart failure
Dr. Sern Lim – Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

15.00 – 15.30      Afternoon Tea , Posters and Exhibitions

15.30 – 16.30 – Predicting and Achieving Longevity

15.30 – 16.00 Medical therapies and interventions (SERT, TACE, transplant)
Professor Martyn Caplin – The Royal Free Hospital, London

16.00 – 16.30 Radiotherapies
(TBC)

16.30 Close of Meeting